LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—A meeting of Chamberlin Post, G. A.

R., will be held in their rooms in Citizen's Bank Block, Saturday night.

—A meeting of the democrats will be held in Elisha May's office Thursday evening to plan for the campaign. The leaders have been promised a good speaker for a rally here the last of the month and hope to get Senator Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma.

—Hodge's Orchestra are engaged to play for dances tonight at Lyndonville and Friday at Glover.

—C. C. Follensby was violently thrown from his carriage Thursday morning near his mill and dragged along the road for quite a distance. He came out of the accident with a gash in his head and was able to return to work after visiting a surgeon. His horse was stung by a bee and turning quickly threw Mr.

Follensby out of the carriage.

—W. H. McFarlin begins today the erection of a studio for Photographer

Reed. It will be located on Eastern avenue, 24 feet from the street, between the houses of Frank N. Carr and Abel Hos-mer.

—Over 40 members of Apollo Lodge

K. P., under command of Capt. H. W.

Ellis and Sergt. S. J. Somerville were in Boston last week enjoying the Grand Encampment. The Vermont Pythians occupied a position well to the fore in the second regiment in the parade, there being a band and eight companies from this state, and over 5000 Pythians were in uniform.

—Among the members of the 1st Infantry, V. N. G., designated as members of the rifle team from this state to compete in the national match at Camp

Perry, Ohio, commencing August 24 are

Capt. John W. Tinker and Private Harry

V. Gregory of Co. D.

—Frank E. Harris has just installed a three drawer National cash register in his clothing store, the only one of its kind in town. He has also purchased a set of racks for displaying clothing instead of keeping the suits on tables and counters.

—Lyman Howe's moving pictures are booked at New Music Hall on the evening of Sept. 3. This concern has been coming to St. Johnsbury for the last 10 years and will present an entire new line of pictures. Buy your tickets of the boys when they begin their canvass.

—As Sunday is the anniversary of the battle of Bennington, Monday will be observed as a legal holiday by the banks and the post office. The banks close for the day and the post office will be opened at the usual holiday hours.

—The new patients at the St. Johnsbury Hospital are Frank Heath of Bradford, Mrs. Robert Clark, Earl Davis, Grace Winters, Mrs. T. N. Carder, Charlotte Legendre, of St. Johnsbury, Dan Kearns of Manchester, Mrs. Thomas Haughed of Richford, Mrs. Eugene Brace of Island Park, Canada, Mrs. Louis Le-tourney of Lyndonville. The patients recently discharged are Mary Hinch, Earl Davis, Grace Winters and Mrs.
Louis Letourneau.

—The new flowers at the Museum are:
Burdock, Aug. 2; wintergreen, grass-of-Parnassus, narrow-leaved cow-wheat, wild balsam apple, cat-tail, silver-rod and white vervain and fruits of creeping snowberry, alternate-leaved cornel and purplish meadow rue, Aug. 3.

—Last week Madam Brock's orchestra played Thursday night at a reception at Pike, N. H., tendered their traveling salesmen by the Pike Mfg. Co., and on Monday night at a pop concert at the Bluffs, Lake Memphremagog, given in honor of Mrs. George Flint of Newport.
At the latter function vocal selections by two Newport artists, Messrs. Aaron Grout and Harry Hamilton, were received with marked favor. Their calendar for this week includes, besides the annual tennis dance, engagements at Concord, Barton Landing and Woods-ville.

—J. C. Danforth, the architect, has recently completed plans for two houses in Barton. He has moved his machine for making cement stone to his own lot on Mt. Pleasant street, and will soon begin on the construction of his own home. This will be the first dwelling house in town of cement stone construction.

—Peter Sustoski, a Pole who works in A. L. Nichols' mill at East Haven, got badly injured there, August 2, and was brought to Brightlook Hospital, Sunday.
An examination showed that no bones were broken, and he is getting along very comfortably, though unable to speak a word of English.

Judge Stafford's Engagements.

Midsummer brings little rest to Judge Wendell P. Stafford because of his numerous engagements. Thursday evening he delivers the address at Rutland at the midsummer meeting of the Vermont Bar Association. From there he goes to Boston to meet the commission recently appointed by the President to examine the leading prisons of the country and recommend to the next Congress a new bill for the District of Columbia. The present building is overcrowded and has long outlived its day. The commission, of which Judge Stafford is chairman, consists besides of a Washington banker and a government architect and they will first visit the Concord reformatory.
While Judge Stafford may not be able to visit many prisons, the other members of the commission hope to go as far as Leavenworth, Kansas, in their tour.
The President is deeply interested in the prospect of a new jail in Washington and will make the commission's report a part of his message to the next Congress.

Judge Stafford returns to Vermont the last of next month and is booked for Sept. 22 at Barre, where he will deliver the address at the dedication of that city's new library.

Drowned at East Ryegate.

Parties were dragging the Connecticut river all day yesterday in Ryegate to find the body of L. Chamberlain who was drowned on Monday night. Mr.
Chamberlain could not swim and getting beyond his depth was carried down stream by the current. He was 21 years old and came from Bath, N. H. He was a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and leaves a father and brother in Bath. He was drowned near the Clay island crossing at East Ryegate.

Held for Burglary.

Sheriff Winch brought to our jail yesterday Herman Voyer, alias Albert Rodier, and he will be held for trial at the December term of court for entering the house of Edward Hart in June, 1903, and stealing a coat and silver bon bon dish. About ten days later he entered a house in St. Albans and was captured by Sheriff Kelley. The latter recovered the stolen articles and returned them to Mr. Hart. For the St. Albans crime Voyer was sentenced to state's prison and his term expired yesterday. At that time he was delivered over to Sheriff Winch who brought him to St. Johnsbury.

Republican Politics.

The First Rally Tuesday Night—The Caucus Friday Night—Plans for the Campaign at Friday's Meeting.

The republican state committee have arranged in conjunction with the town committee for the first rally of the season at New Music Hall, Tuesday evening.
Edward T. Fairbanks will preside and the St. Johnsbury Band will furnish the music. The speakers will be Congressman D. J. Foster, Lieut.-Gov. George H.
Prouty, the party's candidate for governor, and our distinguished townsman, Gov. Henry C. Ide. The famous campaign singer, A. J. Maxham, will sing.
These are all excellent speakers and ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to hear them.

The republican town committee have called the caucus to nominate a town representative at the Town Hall on Friday evening, August 14, at 7.30 o'clock. Among the list of names mentioned in last week's paper was Dr.
C. A. Cramton, who wishes us to say it would be impossible for him to consider the question. In the list already mentioned are some of our leading business men and there ought to be a large attendance at the caucus.

Chairman Williams of the republican state committee and Candidate Prouty met the various members of the town committees of the county at the Court House, Friday afternoon. About half the towns in the county were represented and the meeting was in charge of Harry Blodgett, the Caledonian county member of the committee. Chairman Williams urged the importance of getting a thorough organization in every town and Lieut.-Gov. Prouty briefly discussed state issues along the lines of the interview which appears on our editorial page. Gov. Henry C. Ide spoke of the importance of Vermont's vote as a political barometer, and said even in the Philippines the Americans were always anxious to get the news from Vermont.

At the Hotels.

Among those registered at the St.
Johnsbury House during the past week were P. B. Claxton of Knoxville, Tenn., S. Helen Rogers of Beloit, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Waterman of Minneapolis, and Don P. Cameron of Portland, Ore.
Automobile parties of the week were J.
Hughes, B. Barrette and Mrs. Ferguson of Toronto, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A.
Barnard, Thomas Barnard and Mrs.
Manson Leary of Cambridge, Mass.; F.
S. Kimball, C. B. Pitblado and N. J.
Olson of Hartford, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lathrop of Chicago, Ill.

The recent arrivals by auto at the Avenue House are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dimse of Jersey City and Mr. and Mrs.
H. H. Pease of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Dairidge and children of Short Hills, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L.
Schenck and Mrs. Sterling Beardsley of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. J. G.
Prouty and children and Mrs. A. F.
Warner of Spencer, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs.
Robert MacDonald of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morgan of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pierce and son of New York City; Charles F. Wright and Henry B. Cram of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs.
Leon M. Abbott, W. Clifton Jones, H. M. Laughlin and Alfred Sears of Boston.

Excursion to Plattsburg, August 13.

The Wright Garage.

W. A. Wright's garage is now ready for occupancy though it is temporarily finished to be of immediate use in the automobile season. It is a one story structure 41 by 82 feet, but eventually it will have three stories and ground dimensions 132 by 41 feet. It was built by the Caledonia Cement Stone Company under the supervision of the architect, J. C. Danforth. Nearly 200 barrels of cement were used and 2000 individual blocks. The main entrance is just back of Railroad street and the rear faces on Pearl street. The building will be used for the sale and storage of gasoline engines and automobiles and machinery will be installed for repairing the same.

Relief Corps Notes.

Miss Susie Eastman of Haverhill, Mass., was the guest of Chamberlin Relief Corps at their last meeting. She is a talented impersonator and teacher and entertained the members in a delightful manner.

The picnic to have been held with Mrs.
Page and Mrs. Wallace of the Center has been postponed till Aug. 18. The party will go on the 10.45 train and return on the 6 o'clock.

The Corps will serve the dinner for the Third Regiment reunion, Sept. 15.
The next meeting will be held in the evening of August 20 in their new hall.

Excursion to Plattsburg August 13.

TELEPHONE CALL

(A Conversation Heard on the Telephone.)

HELLO CENTRAL!

Give me 139 G. Hello! who is this? Hello! what Mrs. Jones, well how are you this morning? First class, How are you? I am well, what is the news? News, well now about all I hear is about the Big Clearance Sale

at Amos W. Scott's Store.

Say have you been down. No I haven't had time.
Haven't had time, well now take my advice and take time, it will pay you, such bargains, say I can't begin to tell you. Hello! what, am I going to the circus?
Yes, and take all the children. You don't say so.
What changed your mind, you said you couldn't afford to go, times were so hard. Now then, I tell you, the money we saved at the sale will pay for tickets for everyone of us. Hello; say, I am going right down to that sale, can't stop to talk with you any longer, I want to go to the Circus, too; say you said they had Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits.

Yes and Shoes of all sorts. Yes, almost anything you can ask for, but you want to hurry up, for almost everyone I have seen lately say they are going. Well good bye. Say call me up when you get back and tell me if you are going to the Circus. Hello! yes,

RANDALL & WHITCOMB,

St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

ALMOST THERE.

I had a remittance from a former St. Johnsbury man, now residing in Boston this morning and he said "I believe this is my last payment on my 20 year endowment and I shall look for the cash next year."

How would you like to have one mature 20 years hence? The time to apply for a policy is when you know you can get it. There is always a time when you can't do it. I still represent the good old "State Mutual Life of Mass." and await your pleasure.
